Teaching Strategies

The curriculum is designed to promote a variety of teaching strategies that support the outcomes described in the course objectives and to foster higher cognitive skills. Delivery makes use of various media and delivery tools in the classroom.

This course is designed to provide students "real world" skills used to effectively and efficiently manage teams in a business setting. The entire learning is based on teaching the students the specific skills that they need to know in order to perform specific tasks. The students are also introduced to a more in-depth approach to the concepts of group work and virtual teams and the ways of managing them to achieve the business goals and objectives. For this purpose, it is important to use “real world” examples and equate the learning to practical applications to make the learning process interesting for the students.

This course requires submitting a project and writing assignments that include analyzing case studies related to the study of business environment. In addition, there are lot of in-class activities created to increase the comfort level of the students and to enable them to work on their specific projects.
